EMERGENCY

MOTION FOR ISSUANCE OF A WRIT OF
 HABEAS CORPUS AD TESTIFICANDUM; OR, A CONFERENCE CALL

COME NOW the plaintiff James G. Turner, et al., Pro Se, pursuant to Emergency and respectfully move this Honorable Court for issuance of a writ of habeas corpus ad testificandum, or, alternatively, for a Conference Call.

IN SUPPORT, plaintiff states:

1. That due to his prisoner status at the Menard Correctional Center ("Menard") and his confinement to Disciplinary / Segregation ("Seg, Unit) of the Ill. Dept. of Corrections ("IDOC"), he has no physical access to the prison law library. Further, due to his massive xerocopy/legal postage debt and naming Head Librarian in several new civil Rights Complaints; Head Librarian K. Schorn refuses to photocopy the instant complaint, nor, his Amended Complaint, nor any other of his complaints, and exhibits. As such, plaintiff is prevented from submitting the proper number of copies; His Amended Complaint and necessary exhibit evidence in this proceeding, and other forthcoming complaints.

2. Additionally, due to plaintiff being confined to a two-man-cell with a mentally ill young gang member who have assaulted him; stolen some of his property; taken his Food trays and threats, curses and ridicules plaintiff, plaintiff is suffering from a reign of terror, an atmosphere of violence and subject to imminent danger of serious physical injury. Forcing plaintiff to attempt suicide to try and get away from his dilemma.

3. Plaintiff is being retaliated against as he's assigned to a two-man-Steel-fronted Closed Box type cell, where is suffers from breathing attacks, claustrophobia and High Blood Pressure, Internal bleeding, Anemia and Hepatitis-C. Plus, constant pain to his abdomen, lower back and both arms and hands, and staff refuses to move him. Additionally, plaintiff is not being properly treated by Medical Personnel, forcing him to suffer more needlessly.

4. Accordingly, because library staff will not copy his complaints and exhibits; plaintiff's assignment to cell with crazed gang member; Assigned cell being a Hot Box Cell and numerous medical problems plaintiff suffers from. Plaintiff requests this Honorable Court to enter an Order for the issuance of A Writ of Habeas Corpus Ad Testificandum, or, for A Conference Call, to remedy library staff refusal to copy documents; to have him move to single-man-open barred cell and given necessary medical care, to and including appointing counsel.

WHEREFORE, DO HE PRAY.

Respectfully submitted,
